Re: GAGV v. City Assessor, 8872/91

Dear Susan:

Judge Siracuse's clerk called me today to reschedule the return date for plaintiff's motions in this action from November 12, 1992 to November 19, 1992.

Given that the motions are now noticed for several weeks more than the minimum 8 days notice provided for under CPLR Rule 2214, I trust that defendant will not need an extension of time to answer, except for extremely exigent circumstances.

In addition, because the original Notice of Motion neglected to include a date for the service of responsive papers pursuant to Rule 2214, I have enclosed an Amended Notice of Motion which I have filed with the court.

As I stated when I served you with plaintiff's motion papers today, I am more than happy to discuss the possibility of settlement with you at any time. Please feel free to get in touch with me at your convenience.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Ellen Yacknin
Plaintiff's Attorney
